

Puerto Rican Folkloric Dance, Inc.

WHO WE ARE.....

Puerto Rican Folkloric Dance, Inc. (PRFDance) is the first and only Austin-based dance company whose mission is to promote the culture and folklore of Puerto Rico through educational programs in the fine arts. Founded in 1997, PRFDance embodies the mission of performing and teaching traditional Puerto Rican folkloric dance, percussion, music, song and the historical development of the Island's customs and traditions.

Celebrando 2001 with Modesto Cepeda State Theatre - June 24, 2pm 719 Congress Ave, Downtown Austin

Join the PRFDance Company for an afternoon of traditional dance, music, history and song as Puerto Rican Folkloric Dancers and Musicians celebrate the rich culture of Puerto Rico. We will be performing Bomba, Plena, Seis Chorreao, Danza and other "bailes típicos" from our Spanish, Taino and West African roots.

Special guest, world-renowned Bomba master and folklorist Modesto Cepeda and members of Cimientto will be here, direct from Puerto Rico, to share the stage with us.

This special performance is funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Texas Commission on the Arts, the City of Austin under the Auspices of the Austin Arts Commission, the Institute of Puerto Rican Culture, and IBM.

Tickets on sale at the Box Office and Star Tickets (Albertsons or call 512-469-SHOW, toll free 1-888-597-STAR):

$10 adults, $8 Senior/College & High School Students with ID, $5 for 13 & under, 2 & under (lap child) free.
